A. Possessive pronoun or possessive adjective? Choose the appropriate words to complete the story.

When I was a kid, my/mine sister and I always got the same presents. We both got a dress, for example, but mine/my was green and hers/her was pink. One year, ours/our parents got us kites, but they were exactly the same. There was no way to know whose was whose. One day, I was playing with my/mine in the garden, and I broke it, just a little bit. I didn't tell anyone, but I went to my/mine sister's room and swapped it for her/hers. The next day, our/ours family went to the beach. There were some other children there and they loved our/ours kites. Mine/my sister saw the kids and said, "They haven't got a kite, I'm going to give them my/mine." I felt terrible. Mine/my sister always been nicer than me.
